

Appendix No. 1 to the regulations of the "Municipal Youth Activator" programme - Project evaluation criteria

Who evaluates projects?

The projects will be assessed in terms of form and content by a team composed of representatives of the Youth Council of Lublin and the Lublin Student Council, as well as a representative of the Youth Policy Office of the Lublin City Hall.

Formal assessment

The formal evaluation of submitted proposals includes an analysis of the following items (YES/NO):

1. the applicant is an informal group of young people consisting of at least 3 people aged 13 to 26 who study, work or live in Lublin;
2. the application contains all required elements;
3. the application does not assume the implementation of non-eligible activities;
4. the application assumes the implementation of activities that fall within the definition of social and civic activities presented in the regulations of the "Municipal Youth Activator".

The condition for receiving a positive formal assessment is to obtain a "yes" answer to all points.

Content assessment

The following issues are taken into account in the substantive assessment:

1. proposed goal and change established by the informal group are measurable and achievable by the people involved in the project - from 0 to 10 points;
2. the project does not only serve the group of initiators, but influences a larger group of recipients, especially young people - from 0 to 5 points;
3. the project plan is potentially attractive to the community to which it is addressed - from 0 to 4 points;
4. activities planned by the applicant are feasible within a specified time (from July 6 to November 15) and within the budget selected by the group - from 0 to 5 points.
